One of the Finest Wines in the World

MARGAUX lies 28 Kil N. W. of Bordeaux, and is known under the name of Port Margaux. The ancient Isle of Vincent and the Isle of La Tour de Mons form a portion of Margaux. The soil is very fertile, of a blackish kind of earth, mixed with a great number of pebbles, forming an irregular bed. Its reputation is universal. It is, without doubt, in successful years, the first Wine of the world, gifted with a beautiful color, much delicacy and splendid bouquet ; it is generous without being heavy, reviving the stomach while respecting the head.

The Château Margaux has a very ancient origin and old celebrity. In the 14th Century it was known under the name of Lamothe. It was then a fortified castle ; it belonged, at this period, to the Seigneur Monferrand, and later to the Seigneur de Dufort. In 1750, M. de Funnel, who was its possessor, made important vine plantations, which have contributed to put them upon the first ranks of Medoc growths. It was bought in 1802 by the Marquis of Lacolonilla, who razed the old Château and constructed the rich palace of to-day. In 1836 M. Le Vicomte Aquado, Marquis de las Marimas, became its possessor ; his son sold it to M. Pillet-Will in 1879.

I should be glad to receive your order for this famous Wine.

$3,500 in Prizes to Artists

It is our purpose to combine in Osborne Art Calendars the qualities that appeal alike to the connoisseur and the layman; Osborne Calendars must be good art and they must be popular. As each year's line is WHOLLY new, we require annually several hundred high-class original paintings and designs. These prizes are offered for the purpose of stimulating the production of the kind of picture we want.

Leading artists take satisfaction in having their work reproduced by this Company, knowing that Osborne Art Calendars annually go into millions of homes and that they exert a wide and constant influence in raising the popular appreciation of good art.

The following are only a few of the artists whose recent paintings are reproduced in 1903 Osborne Calendars:

J. G. BROWN, N.A.	LOUIS MOELLER, N.A.
GEORGE R. BARSE, Jr., N.A.	JAMES M. HART, N.A.
CHARLES C. CURRAN, A.N.A.	W. VERPLANCK BIRNEY, A.N.A.
CARLETON WIGGINS, A.N.A.	HARRY ROSELAND
FRANCIS C. JONES, N.A.	J. L. G. FERRIS
H. R. POORE, A.N.A.	A. F. TAIT, N.A.
J. H. DOLPH, N.A.

There are five prizes of $500 each, to be awarded by a jury of three well-known critics, and a popular prize of $1,000 to be awarded by the vote of about forty thousand calendar buyers in the United States. All satisfactory pictures or designs that do not win prizes will be purchased at a fair price.

Artists and designers may obtain full particulars upon application.

THE FOUNDERS.

On the 8th of November, 1825, a number of young Artists and Students established the New York Drawing Association; and soon after, on the 19th of January, 1826, they resolved themselves into a new organization, to be known as the National Academy of the Arts of Design. They thereupon chose from their number fifteen artists, who were directed to choose fifteen others, the thirty thus selected to constitute the New Society.

Of this body of Founders of the National Academy of Design, whose names are here recorded, the last survivor, Thomas S. Cummings, N.A., who was for many years the Treasurer, and at one time the Vice-President, of the Academy, died September 25, 1894.

Old Port Wine.

This wine is very delicate, Tawny Port, of great flavor and bouquet, and was selected for me by a friend in Oporto, as representing the best of Old Growths of Port. Its vintage is unknown, but it is believed to be that of 1870; which was one of the "Grand Years" in the Alto Douro. I have had this wine carefully drawn from the original cask in 5-gallon demijohns, and beg to offer it at $10.00 per gallon.

Will you try a package?

Sherry.

I have received by Ship "Leon XIII" a butt of Extra Superior Oloroso Sherry. This is not a commercial wine — but one of the old Olorosos, held for years in the Spanish Bodega at Xerez de la Frontera, Spain.

This wine is like an East Indian Sherry — medium sweet, and of a dark, rich color. It has a delightful bouquet. I have had it drawn for convenience into 5-gallon demijohns.

Will you try a package of this excellent wine—at $8.00 per gallon?

Amontillado.

Ex the Ship "Bravo" I have a butt of very Old Amontillado Sherry; specially selected for me by M. de Castro — at Xerez de la Frontera. This wine is the light, delicate Amontillado, so seldom seen here. It is a soft Silky wine of great flavor. I have for convenience had it drawn in 5-gallon demijohns—

Price, $9.00 per gallon.
